

Our governor claims the FCC wants to weaken our do not call list program. Obviously, if anybody here wanted more telemarketing calls, they would not be on the list.

I'd be very interested in which, if any elected officials are supporting this change for purposes of political action. It would be nice if you could also provide their home phone numbers & perhaps I could organize a something where each NJ resident could express directly how disenthused we are with their actions.

- Jeffrey D. Wilson